The Law Enforcement Torch Run began in 1981 when Wichita, Kansas Police Chief Richard La Munyon saw a need to raise awareness and funds for Special Olympics. He conceived the idea of the Torch Run as a way to involve local law enforcement with the community and Special Olympics.

After three successful runs in Kansas, La Munyon presented the idea to the International Association of Police Chiefs. With the IACP's endorsement, the idea was launched nationally and today involves law enforcement personnel in all 50 states and about 25 countries throughout the world. This movement has become the largest grass roots fundraising program to benefit Special Olympics in the world.

Prior to the run, participants collect pledges and contributions and are often sponsored by service groups, schools and businesses that raise funds for the Law Enforcement Torch Run. Team LeCI is sponsoring this event to raise funds for the Torch run in June 2010. In 2009, Team LeCI raised over $6500 and had over 30 runners representing Team LeCI.
